A MESSAGE FROM THE CONFERENCE CHAIR

Welcome to WRAP's 47th Annual Conference: "Just BEE YOU"

I'm Katie Schanen, honored to serve as your Conference Chair for this year's WRAP Annual Conference. Alongside our dedicated committee, we've worked diligently to craft an event that will inspire, educate, and connect us all!

Conference Details: Mark Your Calendars

Dates: September 17–19, 2025

Location: Hotel Marshfield, Wisconsin

Cultural Arts Exhibit: Showcase Your Hive's Talent

We're excited to host the Cultural Arts Exhibit once again. This is a wonderful opportunity to showcase the creative talents of your residents. Please ensure you register by the September 1st deadline to be considered for official recognition.

Membership: Join the Hive

Not yet a WRAP member? Now's the perfect time to join! For just $35 annually, you'll enjoy member-exclusive conference rates and a year of connection with like-minded professionals. Join the hive at wrap-wi.org.

Early Registration: Secure Your Spot

Register by August 16th to take advantage of early bird member rates. Secure your place in the colony and prepare for a conference filled with inspiration and collaboration.

Support the Hive: Silent Auction & Prize Bingo

Help us raise funds for scholarships by participating in our Silent Auction and Prize Bingo. Your support ensures that more members can attend and benefit from this enriching experience.

Let's Create a Buzz

This conference is more than just a gathering—it's a hive of energy where we come together to recharge, share bright ideas, and celebrate the passion and dedication we bring to life enrichment. Together, we'll create a buzz that spreads far and wide, pollinating positivity throughout our communities.

Do Your Residents Have Projects That Need to Be Shared?

The WRAP Conference is the perfect place to showcase what's been buzzing around your center over the past year! We're eagerly anticipating another Cultural Arts Exhibit for the 2025 conference, and we can't wait to see the creative hive of talent you've cultivated!

The sign-up link is now live! Visit the WRAP website at

HTTPS://WRAP-WI.ORG/CONFERENCES/CULTURAL-ARTS.

We'll need the following to get your projects in the spotlight:

- Your Name & Facility
- Address
- Resident Name & Age
- Project Name
- Percentage of Work Completed by Resident
- Description
- Size of Project
- The Category You'd Like to Display In

There's no limit to the number of projects you can bring — we'll do our best to showcase every creative endeavor!

At the Conference:

When you arrive, you'll receive an envelope with cards for each of your projects. Each piece will be placed in its appropriate spot for judging. All entries will receive ribbons and certificates, and the Best of Show will be revealed at the Awards Banquet.

Last-minute projects? No problem! We'll accept them if there's room to display.

Deadline for Submissions:

September 1st. Don't miss the chance to have your resident's hard work take flight!

Continuing Edu-BEE-cation

Earn up to 15 buzzing hours of continuing education by attending all hive-approved sessions at this year's conference! WRAP has submitted applications to both NCCAP and APNCC for approval of these 15 CEU hours.

Your Certificate of Pollination (Education!) will be one sheet, with "secret words" shared in each session. It's your job as a busy bee to jot them down and complete your certificate — WRAP won't keep any copies, so guard yours like royal jelly!

For Worker Bees Needing University Credit (CTRS folks especially!):
Please see registration table for more information on how to receive credits.

Hive Gathering & Annual Buzziness (Member) Report

All WRAP colony members are invited to our Annual Hive Meeting on Wednesday at 5:15pm. Come share your buzz, vote on hive matters, and connect with fellow bees. Stick around after the meeting for a delicious Taco Bar (for those who signed up on the registration form). It's a perfect way to refill your nectar stores! The Annual Report will be ready to review starting September 1st in the Members Only section of the WRAP Hive (website). Swing by and check it out!

Session 5: Flourishing With Fewer Hands: How To Create Meaningful Engagement During Times of Staff Challenge

Session Objectives: 1. Implement at least three practical, resourceful strategies to maintain or enhance engagement with limited team support. 2. Integrate low-prep, high-impact programming ideas into everyday routines using structured frameworks. 3. Leverage residents’ strengths and peer support to foster organic, resident-led connections.

Bios: Kelly Gilligan’s education includes a Bachelor of Arts in English & Psychology from Fordham University, a Master’s in Social Work from Rutgers University, and certification as a Validation Worker through the Validation Institute. She has 20 years of experience training home health aides, volunteers, and managers in the elder and memory care industries. Prior to co-founding Inspired Memory Care, Kelly served as Executive Director of a Residential Treatment Center and Regional Trainer for an avant-garde organization at the forefront of research-based dementia care practice.

Nettie Harper’s journey into eldercare began with a single, transformative volunteer experience at an adult day program—an encounter that sparked a lifelong passion for supporting older adults, particularly those living with memory loss. Now a Certified Therapeutic Recreation Specialist with over 20 years of leadership in memory care and therapeutic recreation, Nettie has secured state grants, developed impactful training programs, and held leadership roles including Vice President of Operations, Director of Recreation, and Dementia Specialist. She holds a B.A. in Sociology and an M.S. in Therapeutic Recreation from the University of Florida. Nettie’s work spans home care, nursing homes, adult day programs, and assisted living communities, all driven by her commitment to honoring the strengths, dignity, and wisdom of every elder.
